

Directions to Clissmann Horse Caravan Base at Cronybyrne from Rosslare Europort

The journey time from Rosslare ferry port in County Wexford to our farm is approx. 1 hour 40 minutes to 2 hours and covers 126km.

Once you have disembarked the ferry, follow the N25 for approx 20km. At the New Ross Road Roundabout in Belmont, take the 2nd exit, signposted for Dublin, and join the start of the N11.

Continue for another 20km to reach the town of Enniscorthy. Follow the signposts for Dublin and the N11 when passing through the town.

Stay on the N11 for a further 20km, passing through Ferns and Camolin before joining the M11 at Clogh.

At Clogh Roundabout, take the 2nd exit onto M11 heading to Dublin and travel for 52km.

Exit the Motorway at Junction 16, which is signposted for Ashford/Rathnew/Roundwood on the R772.

At the roundabout take the 3rd exit for Rathnew to the R772 which brings you over the bridge crossing the M11.

Enter next roundabout and take 1st exit following signs for Rathnew.

Continue straight ahead, passing a Fiat car dealership on your left and an Apple garage on your right until you reach the next roundabout. Take the 2nd exit signposted for Rathdrum R752.

Continue approx 5km until you reach the village of Glenealy. Travel straight through the village. You will cross 2 speed bumps as you exit the village.

Continue straight on, passing the Glenealy Landscape Centre and Kelly's Garden sheds on your left.

Prepare to turn right shortly after Kelly's Garden Sheds. You will see a signpost marked just before a sweeping bend. The right turn is on this bend just before the railway bridge over the road. Turn right on the road L2116 signposted "SCENIC ROUTE".

Follow this road up a steep winding hill until you come to a staggered crossroads called Garryduff crossroads. At the crossroads turn right and then immediately left following the sign for Laragh & Glendalough. Continue straight on crossing an old stone bridge.

The horse caravan base is the next entrance on the left. You will see a wide opening with two large stones and horse caravans in the field.
